

Proudly Presenting Our Rising Star: Madeleine Perry

I loved my Trilogy Verago from the first moment I sat in it. It offered me unparalleled comfort and balance while riding, and Debbie has fit it perfectly to my current horse so we can focus on training without worrying about saddle fit. It is very important to me that my horses are comfortable in their tack so they can perform their best. My Verago gives my horse excess shoulder freedom and whither clearance, and the panels lay perfectly and evenly on both sides of his spine. Ebony and I would not be the pair that we are without my Trilogy. I am honored to be a Trilogy Saddles rising star!
