ICC Board Members' Biographies

Harry Matovu KC

Harry Matovu KC was called to the English Bar in 1988, took Silk in 2010 and is a Bencher of the Inner Temple. He is a Barrister and King's Counsel with a wide-ranging and high-profile domestic and international commercial practice, including energy and natural resources, public and private international law, cross-border disputes, civil fraud and asset recovery, finance and insurance/reinsurance. He has a substantial international arbitration practice, acting both as leading counsel and as a top-ranked arbitrator.

Alongside his professional practice, Harry is a committed advocate of equality of opportunity for talented professionals from minority groups. He is the creator of the Black Talent Charter, whose signatories and supporters include some of the biggest firms and names in the City.

He was named in The Lawyer 'Hot 100' List for 2021 and he was nominated as Silk (KC) of the Year for International Arbitration in the Legal 500 Awards 2020. He was recognised in the Powerlist 2022 for the second year in succession as one of the most influential Black professionals in the UK.
