ICC Board Members' Biographies

Natalia Bottomley

Natalia is a partner at KPMG. She joined KPMG after studying history at University of York and qualified as a chartered accountant in 2010. In her role at KPMG she has extensive experience of auditing large global listed groups as well as leading a department of over 120 people.

Currently alongside her client work, Natalia runs a women's programme aimed at developing young female talent at KPMG.