

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF THE LULUWRAP

The travel accessory that redefines the way you experience fashion and travel

Hey there fellow travelers and style enthusiasts! Join me on a sartorial adventure, "A Day in the Life of the LuLuWrap."

I love traveling to different corners of the world, whether it's the enchanting landscapes within the U.S. or the allure of international destinations. Travel, to me, is more than a journey; it's a connection with the global community. It provides us with a sense of unity, independence, and the thrill of exploration. Every trip unravels unique insights into diverse people, cultures, and delectable cuisines, enriching our lives in ways unimaginable.

For me, the anticipation of a journey is as exhilarating as the adventure itself. The question arises: Where would you like to go? What destinations stir your wanderlust? And, equally exciting, what will you pack for your next escapade?

I hope to spark inspiration with this ebook as we explore the possibilities that the LuLuWrap brings to your travel wardrobe. Whether getting away for a few days to unwind or off to an exotic trip abroad, let's infuse style into every moment. May your journeys be as stylish as they are memorable!

I'm treating myself to a few days in Kauai. An impromptu trip to visit friends seems like the perfect thing to do to raise my spirits.

Luckily I have a few days off from work and a bunch of miles to use.

I definitely need to pack light, and I want to look stylish on this trip. So I'll pack a few of my favorite LuLuwrops

NOON

I'm finally here - unwinding by the pool. Feeling the warmth of the sun on my body. Breathing in the sweet scent of the plumeria. I am definitely on vacation!!!

I just realized how hungry I am. It's lunchtime and the smell of the fresh fish on the grill is suddenly irresistible. As much as I'd like to stay on this chaise and bask in the sun, my hunger wins out.

I get up and go to the restaurant only to find out that I can't get in wearing just a bathing suit.

No problem, I take out my brand new LuLuwrap from its organza pouch (I brought 3 LuLuwraps specifically for this trip) and I decide to wrap it around me and wear it as a skirt, boho style, and off I go into the restaurant for a Bloody Mary and a grilled shrimp salad. Yum!!!!

1:30 P.M.

After that leisurely lunch I feel like taking a long walk on the beach. I don't want to get my LuLuwrap wet, so I'm going to change out of the skirt, and try on a different LuLuwrap style.

I think I'll wear it poncho style over my bathing suit. This should also give me some protection from the intense afternoon sun.

The ocean looks so clear and calm that I have to jump in and take a refreshing swim to cool off.

Now it's time to go back to the hotel and change. I'm treating myself to an afternoon of deep breathing and stretching. I am serious about de-stressing!!!

4:00P.M.

The concierge at the hotel told me about a really great yoga class in town. And what better way to work out all the kinks. So, I decided to check it out.

I thought it would be fun to wear my new maroc-rose LuLuwrap. So I got into my LuLu Leggings, put on a cami and threw on the LuLuwrap as an over-blouse, and I was ready to go. I grabbed an Uber into town and arrived just in time!

5:30P.M. After class I'm going to meet up with some friends for drinks at a local bar, but before I get there I think it'll be fun to change my LuLuwrap again.

I'm going to try another style. (There are 12 styles to choose from!!!) I'm going to wear the goddess look, which is an off the shoulder tunic. I could even wear it as a dress with a slip underneath. I love the LuLuwrap!

I'm heading out with a big smile on my face and a lilt to my step. I feel beautiful and I know that I look great. I also know that my girlfriends are going to check me out, ask about what I'm wearing and demand to know where I got it! Should I tell them?

8:00P.M.

I'm having so much fun.

However I'm running a bit late.
I get back to the hotel with just enough time to take a shower
and change for the evening.

I've been invited to a dinner party with some local friends that I just met and I want to look really great.

So I put on my best slim, black jeans, with a sexy silk top, a pair of black pumps and some bling. And for the final touch I am going to wear another LuLuwrap in the sophisticate style. I love the look it's so dressy and flowing.

Now I'm ready for whatever the night will bring.

MIDNIGHT

What a great party! Fabulous dinner, great conversation and lots of dancing.

A friend offered to give me a ride back to the hotel and when I got outside it felt a bit windy. So when he pulled up in a convertible with the top down, I decided to change up my LuLuwrap one more time.

Before I got into the car I wrapped it around my head, diva style. to make sure my hair wouldn't get tangled up. I really love this sexy vintage look, a la Grace Kelly.

12:30A.M.

I'm back at the hotel, and I'm feeling exhilarated and not quite ready for bed.

I decide to take one last walk out on to the beach before settling in for the night. The air feels cool so I lower my LuLuwrap and drape it around my shoulders as a shawl.

Standing at the water's edge I reflect on what an awesome day it's been and how lucky I am to have allowed myself the freedom to experience what this beautiful life has to offer.
