

kind & bloom

BRIDAL SHOWER PLANNING CHECKLIST

---

3 Months Before Event

- Talk to the bride. Does she want all women or coed? Afternoon tea or a Saturday night soiree? Does she want a particular bridal shower theme, style or color? Get the gist on the direction she wants to go on the shower.
- Set the date- Usually 1-2 months before wedding
- If the bridal shower will place at a location that needs a reservation, make it now just to be safe.
- Create the guest list for the bridal shower. And take note: Anyone you invite to the shower must also be invited to the wedding.

2 Months Before Event

- Send a save-the-date email or call important guests to see if there might be any scheduling conflicts.
- Purchase bridal shower invitations or what you need to make them.
- Get together can brainstorm on details like rentals, decorations, theme, food, games and who is responsible for what.
- Order special menu items through the bakery or caterer, and rent linens and other equipment from a rental company, if necessary.
- Compile addresses for the guest list.

- Assemble and address invitations. Don't forget to include information about the couple's registries. Then mail invites.
- Shop for decorations, paper goods and other party props. Amazon, etsy and local party stores are good options.
- Buy favours (check out our party favours here).

Two (or More) Weeks Before

- Buy your shower gift for the bride.
- Make a shopping list for the food and drinks. Buy any hard-to-find ingredients.
- Double check with anyone helping with the shower to make sure they can still complete their task.

One Week Before

- Confirm reservations.
- Confirm orders and delivery times.
- Confirm RSVPs.
- Buy groceries.
- Organize shower games and activities.

One Day Before

- Prepare any menu items that can be made in advance.
- Receive and set up equipment, assemble decorations and favors, and set table(s).
- Confirm who's bringing what and ask them to arrive early to help.