

What is Kambo?

Kambo is the name given to the waxy secretion of the giant monkey tree frog, the Phyllomedusa bicolor. It is used by the indigenous tribes to heal and strengthen the body, mind, and spirit.

Kambo is legal in the United States, as well as all other countries and it is not a hallucinogen.

It is a deep cleansing therapy—physically, emotionally and mentally. It detoxifies the liver and intestines, improves mental functioning, and has the potential to dissolve emotional blocks.

None of these services offered here constitute any form of medical practice. Kambo is not a medicine. IAKP practitioners are not doctors nor diagnose disease nor offer any medical advice or treatment. Participants are advised to do their own research of the potential benefits of taking Kambo

SERVICES

Kambo Warrior Initiation

Kambo inoculation. This initial session consists of the application of 3 to 9 points of Kambo to detox the body and cleanse the liver and intestines.

Kambo Warrior Booster

3 Kambo sessions within a moon cycle (30-Days), following the Caboclo tradition. This is a great way to boost and revive your immune system.

Kambo Specialties

Chakra Alignment

Targets a particular chakra, stimulating the flow of energy and removing physical and emotional blocks. The chakras are balanced by applying Kambo points to the respective areas of the spine.

Meridians and Auricular

Stimulates and opens the flow of energy of the internal energy pathways that connect the body's organs and subsystems through precise positioning of Kambo points, in the same way traditional Chinese medicine uses acupuncture and acupressure.

Kambo Warrior Intensives

2 or 3 treatments within 2 to 3 hours. Beneficial when one is needing to make a huge decision or desiring to push through a big emotional or physical block. Multiple sessions in a short period of time may be required to target chronic or acute conditions.

Private, semi-private sessions, small group circles and community ceremonies available. Kambo is given in a safe, and caring setting; each participant is approached with love and kindness.

DETOX, REVIVE, RESET

Kambo is known as the "vaccine of the jungle" and is one of the most powerful antibiotics and anesthetics found in the world. It is one of the strongest ways to boost our immune system.
