

Our History

For many years Creative Candles has been known for bringing ambiance to high-end occasions such as weddings, dinner parties and other social events. Recently we've broadened our reach to create beautiful scenes in and around the home.

You'll notice on our website and social media channels that we've added a focus on experience-based lifestyle scenes in addition to wedding and event decor. To help you reach and delight more consumers, we also send a monthly email with tips and inspiration for displaying and using our candles to decorate a home.

New Look, Same Premium Candles

To go along with our new approach to reaching a wider audience, we gave our brand a whole new look to match our mindset. We are excited to roll out the new branding with a new logo, packaging and website. Things may look a little different around here, but we are still bringing you the same beautiful candles.

Our website is now even easier to navigate, so finding the exact candles you're looking for is faster and simpler. Shop by candle type, color, and size, or click on the inspiration tab to get new ideas for your store.

Rest assured that our candles' unparalleled quality, carefully-curated colors, and the wide selection of shapes and sizes have not changed. Each of our candles will continue to be delivered to you (soon in our new packaging) ready to add a luxurious glow to homes or events.

CREATIVE

The Classics

From the rich matte finish of Pillar Candles to the variety of vibrant colors and heights of Taper Candles - Creative Candles Classics make a beautiful storefront display that draws in customers.

Our experience, talented artisans and the small-batch process we've honed over time enables us to create candles in the types, sizes, colors, fragrances and quantity to satisfy retailers and fulfill custom requests.

As we've grown, we have made sure to protect the quality standards of our premium products upon which we've built our reputation over the last fifty-seven years.

It's in the Details

In addition to the classics, we offer many unique candle types that can be added to your display. From fresh Beeswax Candles in the spring to Cocktail Gift Sets during the Holidays, we have options to keep customers coming back all year long.
