

CALIFORNIA PUBLIC FACILITIES AND BUSINESSES: NEW CALIFORNIA AB1732 RESTROOM SIGNS ARE REQUIRED

Any California restroom that is single-occupant
(if you can lock the door behind you, it is a single-occupant restroom) must be designated with all gender accessible signs meeting AB1732 regulations.

Single-occupant/single-user restrooms that have gender-specific signs such as these on the wall

Will need one of these all gender or gender neutral signs to be compliant with AB1732

Single-occupant/single-user restrooms that have any gender-specific signs such as these on the door

Will need one of these signs to be compliant with AB1732

All Gender, Gender Neutral, Unisex Restroom Signs Meeting ADA and California Title 24 and AB 1732 Regulations

California Assembly Bill No. 1732

AB 1732 requires single-occupancy restrooms in California businesses, government buildings, and places of public accommodation to be universally accessible to all genders by March 1, 2017.